

MAY IS NATIONAL BIKE MONTH.
MAY 11-17 IS BLOOMINGTON BIKES WEEK.

NATIONAL BIKE-TO-WORK DAY

FRIDAY, MAY 22 ♦ 7-10 A.M.

Riding your bike to work is good for you and the planet. You can get to work and get a workout at the same time as you save money, reduce traffic congestion, cut your carbon footprint and have fun. Take part in Bike-to-Work Day and you'll be eligible for healthy food and fun prizes.
For more information contact Steve Cotter at 349-3736.

The undersigned is the adult Program Participant, or is the parent or legal guardian of the Program Participant. The undersigned hereby states that s/he understands the activities that will take place in this program, and that the Program Participant is physically and mentally able to participate in this program. The undersigned recognizes, as with any activity, there is risk of injury. In the event that the Program Participant sustains an injury in the course of the program, and the City of Bloomington Parks and Recreation Department is unable to contact the appropriate person(s) to obtain consent for treatment, the City of Bloomington Parks and Recreation Department and/or its employees or volunteers are authorized to take reasonable steps to obtain appropriate medical treatment. The Program Participant and/or his/her parent or legal guardian shall be responsible for the cost of such treatment. The Undersigned now releases the City of Bloomington, the Bloomington Parks and Recreation Department, its employees, agents, and assigns, from any claims including, but not limited to, personal injuries or damage to property caused by or having any relation to this activity. It is understood that this release applies to any present or future injuries and that it binds the Undersigned, Undersigned's spouse, heirs, executors and administrators. The Program Participant may be photographed and videotaped while participating in Parks and Recreation activities, and consent is given for the reproduction of such photos or videos for advertising and publicity.

I have read this release and understand all of its terms. I agree with its terms and sign it voluntarily.
